Cedar Park School & Nursery

Be kind ★ Be inspired ★ Believe

Year 1 Summer Term 2

How did the first flight change the world?

Why were the Rainhill Trials important?

RISING STARS History

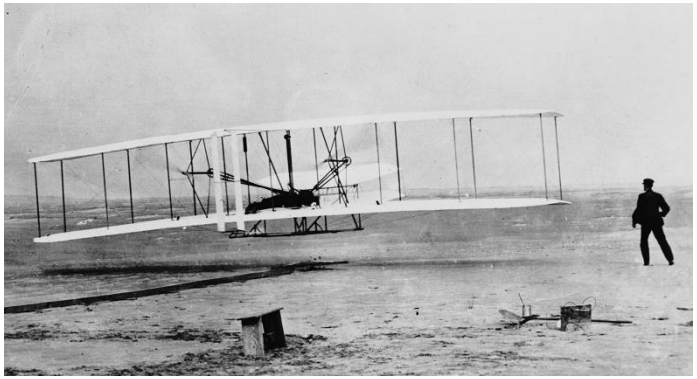
Key Vocabulary
Inventor 	a person who created a particular process or device as their job.
Aviation 	flying using an aircraft, like an aeroplane.
Trade 	buying and selling things is known as trade, it may also be seen as a swap of items.
Transport 	travelling from one place to another using different vehicles.
Evidence 	anything that helps us learn about the past – it may be photos, diary entries or newspapers.
Eyewitness 	someone who has seen something happen and can retell it afterwards.

The Rainhill Trials was a competition to find a mode of transport to carry passengers quickly and safely between Liverpool and Manchester.

The Rocket was the winning train in the Rainhill Trials.

The Rocket was invented by Robert Stephenson and was the only train to finish without any problems.

The Wright Brothers



The first flight lasted only 12 seconds!

