Cedar Park School & Nursery
Be kind ★ Be inspired ★ Believe

Year 6 Spring 1
North America

Key Vocabulary
location	a specific place or area physical feature	the natural features on the Earth's surface human feature	human ideas and actions upon the Earth, including buildings, population, land use and more landmark	an object or feature of a local area that can be seen from a distance or that helps identify where you are land use	the way an area is used by humans settlement	a place where people live tectonic plates	huge pieces of the Earth's surface that fit together to cover the whole planet wildfire	a large, destructive fire that spreads quickly across woodlands, forests and bushes

Physical Features

Niagara Falls

Rocky Mountains

San Andreas Fault Line

Grand Canyon

Mississippi River

Human Features

Toronto

New York City

Mount Rushmore

Golden Gate Bridge

Mexico City

Climate Zone

humid: a high level of water vapour in the air polar: very cold temperatures and no vegetation cold: very low temperatures and frozen ground temperate: a place with mild temperatures arid (dry/desert): to have no or little rain
humid: a high level of water vapour in the air
tropical: hot and humid at the same time

San Andreas Fault

The San Andreas Fault is a long crack along the Earth. It is a strike-slip fault line.

